The Pastor's Corner

Last week, I shared the good news that the Diocese of Providence is launching a special Year of Evangelization. Many exciting things are happening in the Church of Providence! A few of us from the parish have already attended meetings and there is excitement in the air! The important message given by Bishop Tobin is that the Evangelization starts with me, it starts with you. Each one of us must be evangelized and live the Gospel message more faithfully so that we can bring it to others. We must invite inactive Catholic to "Come Home" to the Catholic Church! Shortly, we will be sharing more information with you. Below, is just one part of the Good News for this special Year of Evangelization.

*God bless,
Fr. Finelli*

Coming Soon!!

Beginning in Advent, the Diocese of Providence will be graced with a special television advertising campaign that celebrates the history and achievements of the Catholic Church, and that shares stories of ex-Catholics who have Come Home to the Church. Over 1,100 commercials will be aired between December 18th and January 30th, reaching 98% of all Rhode Islanders an average of 26 times!

Other dioceses that have run this campaign have seen a 20% increase in Mass attendance. It has helped, and will help, many of our lost brothers and sisters COME HOME!

This advertisement campaign will be a public beginning for the diocese's Year of Evangelization!
