They were very respectful in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament, made accommodations for funerals, and did an outstanding job. The crew even vacuumed and cleaned the church at the end of each day before leaving. If you need someone reliable for painting your home or business, contact Jeffrey at (401) 433-4929

The Giving Basket: It's time for our annual Advent project to begin. Each year we place a basket in the Narthex containing items that are needed for families in the Department of Children, Youth, and Families program. Parishioners are asked to pick a tag from the basket, purchase the item, and return it to the Church in a bin that will be placed in the Narthex beginning on Saturday, Nov. 22. through Sunday, Dec. 7th. Please do not wrap the item you purchase. Although the packages are beautiful, the staff must unwrap each item to ensure the gift inside is appropriate for the age of the child receiving it. The parishioners of Holy Ghost Church have always been very charitable and your gift during this upcoming Blessed Season will help to brighten a child's Christmas. Thank you for your generosity and support!

Christmas Bazaar

I would like to thank all who volunteered their time, especially our new co-chair persons - Elaine Fleming & Bob and Lucille Lapointe, who helped everything to come together so smoothly. Thank you also to all who donated items, or made a purchase at the Bazaar last weekend. We received many compliments on this year's bazaar. Even with the poor economy, our Christmas Bazaar broke all records - we grossed almost $3,800.00 more than last year. Keep your eyes on the bulletin for a final report in the near future. Thank you, thank you, thank you - great work by all!

Cold & Flu Season

It is that time once again. The season filled with all kinds of germs is now upon us.

Beginning on November 1st, we will forgo the optional "Sign of Peace". Let us take this opportunity to deepen our recollection as we prepare to receive Holy Communion.

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion who have any form of illness should refrain from distributing Holy Communion.

FROM THE POPE

FEAST OF CHRIST THE KING

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

1. Today we celebrate the Solemnity of Christ the King of the universe. This feast was rightly assigned to the last Sunday of the liturgical year to emphasize that Jesus Christ is the Lord of history and that in Him the whole plan of creation and redemption reaches its fulfillment. Through the Old Covenant, in the consciousness of the people of Israel, the Messiah-King receives his form. It is God himself who, especially through the prophets, reveals to the Israelites his will to gather them as a shepherd does his flock, so that they will live in freedom and peace in the promised land. To this end, he will send his Anointed One, in Greek the "Christ", to redeem the people from sin and to introduce them into the Kingdom. Jesus of Nazareth brings this mission to fulfillment in the Paschal Mystery. He does not come to reign as the kings of the world do but to establish the divine power of Love in the heart of the human person, of history and of the cosmos.

2. The Second Vatican Council proclaimed forcefully and clearly to the contemporary world the lordship of Christ, and its message was taken up again in the Great Jubilee of the Year 2000. Humanity of the third millennium also needs to discover that Christ is its Saviour. This is the message that Christians should bring with renewed courage to the world of today.

3. Among all the angelic and earthly creatures, God has chosen the Virgin Mary to associate her in a singular way with the kingship of her Son made man. This is what we contemplate in the last glorious mystery of the Rosary. May Mary teach us to witness with courage to the Kingdom of God and to welcome Christ as the King of our lives and of the entire universe. - Sunday, 24 November 2002 - Pope John Paul II
